THE ICI CHRISTIAN SERVICE PROGRAM

This is one of 18 courses (subjects) that make up the ICI Christian Service Program. The symbol at the left is a guide for order of study in the series, which is divided into three units of six courses each. Preaching and Teaching is Course 5 in Unit II. You will benefit by studying the courses in the proper order.

Study materials in the Christian Service Program have been prepared in a self-teaching format especially for Christian workers. These courses provide a student with Bible knowledge and skills needed for practical Christian service. You may study this course in order to receive credit toward a certificate, or for personal enrichment.

ATTENTION

Please read the course introduction very carefully. It is important that you follow these instructions so you can achieve the goals of the course, and be prepared for the student reports.

Address all correspondence concerning the course to your ICI University instructor at the address stamped on the copyright page of this study guide.

COURSE INTRODUCTION

You are about to study a very important subject: how you can communicate God's Word effectively by preaching and teaching. These two Bible methods of communicating God's Word are alike in many ways. Yet, during the history of the Christian church, each method has developed some distinctive characteristics that have set it in contrast with the other. Together, these two methods equip you to evangelize the unsaved and to provide for spiritual growth, development, and maturity in the lives of those to whom you minister.

This course is divided into three units of study. The first unit introduces to you the nature of the ministry, scriptural qualifications for the ministry, and definitions of preaching and teaching. You will examine the personal preparation for ministry that truly meets the needs of people. And you will consider practical preparation techniques, in both preaching and teaching, that will help you rightly divide the Word of Truth.

The second unit deals with the specific ministry of preaching. Here you will consider the broader meaning of preaching, reasons for it, and examples of it. You will examine the content of preaching—the message you preach. You will learn how to gather and arrange sermon material and communicate the message for maximum effectiveness.

The third unit treats the meaning of and rationale for teaching, and biblical examples of teaching. You will consider the teaching imperative, which suggests the general nature of the teacher's ministry, and guidelines to help you bring about spiritual growth and maturity in those to whom you minister. You will learn the value of teaching objectives, and the importance of gathering, arranging, and communicating lesson materials effectively. You will consider the significance of establishing goals. Finally, you will examine the need for a balance between preaching and teaching in your ministry. May these lessons guide, instruct, and inspire you as you develop the techniques, attitudes, and character that will make your ministry the effective means of communication your Master intended it to be.

Course Description

Preaching and Teaching is a basic study of two Bible methods of communicating God's Word. The student is guided in the understanding and mastery of practical ways to prepare and present lessons and sermons from Scripture.

Course Objectives

When you finish this course you should be able to:

1. Analyze and explain the need for Christian preaching and teaching.
2. Recognize the qualities of effective preachers and teachers described in the Bible.
3. Develop personally the qualities which characterized the effective preachers and teachers noted in the Bible.
4. Demonstrate understanding and use of the techniques necessary for Bible study and preparation of sermons and lessons.
5. Prepare from Scripture a sermon and a lesson, each appropriate for use in a given situation.

Textbooks

You will use this independent-study textbook, Preaching and Teaching by W. Ernest Pettry, as both the textbook and study guide for the course. The Bible (Today's English Version) is the only other textbook required. Most of the Scriptures quoted are from Today's English Version (TEV). In a few instances we have quoted from the King James Version (KJV) or the New International Version (NIV) where those versions seemed to give a clearer translation of the original Hebrew or Greek text in which the Bible was written.

Study Time

How much time you actually need to study each lesson depends in part on your knowledge of the subject and the strength of your study skills before you begin the course. The time you spend also depends on the extent to which you follow directions and develop skills necessary for independent study. Plan your study schedule so that you spend enough time to reach the objectives stated by the author of the course and your personal objectives as well.

Lesson Organization and Study Pattern

Each lesson includes: 1) lesson title, 2) opening statement, 3) lesson outline, 4) lesson objectives, 5) learning activities, 6) key words, 7) lesson development including study questions, 8) self-test (at the end of the lesson development), 9) answers to the study questions.

The lesson outline and objectives will give you an overview of the subject, help you to focus your attention on the most important points as you study, and tell you what you should learn.

Most of the study questions in the lesson development can be answered in spaces provided in this study guide. Longer answers should be written in a notebook. As you write the answers in your notebook, be sure to record the number and title of the lesson. This will help you in your review for the unit student report.

Do not look ahead at the answers until you have given your answer. If you give your own answers, you will remember what you study much better. After you have answered the study questions, check your answers with those given at the end of the lesson. Then correct those you did not answer correctly. The answers are not given in the usual numerical order so that you will not accidentally see the answer to the next question.

These study questions are very important. They will help you to remember the main ideas presented in the lesson and to apply the principles you have learned.

How to Answer Questions

There are different kinds of study questions and self-test questions in this study guide. Below are samples of several types and how to answer them. Specific instructions will be given for other types of questions that may occur.

A MULTIPLE-CHOICE question or item asks you to choose an answer from the ones that are given.

Example

- 1 The Bible has a total of
- 100 books.
 - 66 books.
 - 27 books.

The correct answer is b) 66 books. In your study guide, make a circle around b) as shown here:

- 1 The Bible has a total of a
- a) 100 books.
 - b) 66 books.
 - c) 27 books.

(For some multiple-choice items, more than one answer will be correct. In that case, you would circle the letter in front of each correct answer.)

A TRUE-FALSE question or item asks you to choose which of several statements are TRUE.

Example

- 2 Which statements below are TRUE?
- a The Bible has a total of 120 books.
 - b The Bible is a message for believers today.
 - c All of the Bible authors wrote in the Hebrew language.
 - d The Holy Spirit inspired the writers of the Bible.

Statements b and d are true. You would make a circle around these two letters to show your choices, as you see above.

A MATCHING question or item asks you to match things that go together, such as names with descriptions, or Bible books with their authors.

Example

3 Write the number for the leader's name in front of each phrase that describes something he did.

- | | | |
|--------|----------------------------------|-----------|
| ..1. a | Received the Law at Mt. Sinai | 1) Moses |
| ..2. b | Led the Israelites across Jordan | 2) Joshua |
| ..2. c | Marched around Jericho | |
| ..7. d | Lived in Pharaoh's court | |

Phrases a and d refer to Moses, and phrases b and c refer to Joshua. You would write 1 beside a and d, and 2 beside b and c, as you see above.

Ways to Study this Course

If you study this ICI University course by yourself, all of your work can be completed by mail. Although ICI has designed this course for you to study on your own, you may also study it in a group or class. If you do this, the instructor may give you added instructions besides those in the course. If so, be sure to follow his instructions.

Possibly you are interested in using the course in a home Bible study group, in a class at church, or in a Bible school. You will find both the subject content and study methods excellent for these purposes.

Unit Student Reports

At the end of the book you will find the Unit Student Report and Answer Sheets. Follow the directions included in the course and in the unit student reports. You should complete and send your answer sheets to your instructor for his correction and suggestions regarding your work. If you are not studying with an ICI University office you will still benefit by answering the questions in the Student Report.

Certificate

Upon the successful completion of the course and the final grading of the unit student reports by your ICI University instructor, you will receive your Certificate of Award.

About the Author

Ernest Pettry is a pastor in the southeastern United States. He has pastored for twenty years and has served as a public school teacher for nine years.
