THE ICI CHRISTIAN SERVICE PROGRAM

This is one of 18 courses (subjects) that make up the ICI Christian Service Program. The symbol at the left is a guide for order of study in the series, which is divided into three units of six courses each. Tents, Temples, and Palaces: A Survey of the Old Testament is Course 2 in Unit II. You will benefit by studying the courses in the proper order.

Study materials in the Christian Service Program have been prepared in a self-teaching format especially for Christian workers. These courses provide a student with Bible knowledge and skills needed for practical Christian service. You may study this course in order to receive credit toward a certificate, or for personal enrichment.

ATTENTION

Please read the course introduction very carefully. It is important that you follow these instructions so you can achieve the goals of the course, and be prepared for the student reports.

Address all correspondence concerning the course to your ICI instructor at the address stamped on the copyright page near the front of the study guide.

Course Introduction

Learn About the People of God

In this course you will study the Old Testament, the first part of the most important book in the world—the Holy Bible. The Old Testament tells about the Creator of the heavens and the earth. It is the account of His dealings with the people He chose to use as an instrument through whom to bless the world.

The first unit contains an introductory lesson that will help you discover why the Old Testament is a personal message for you. You will find out some interesting facts about how it has been preserved and passed on to us. In the remaining lessons of this unit you will learn about how God created mankind and began to make Himself known to them. You will see how He called out a special people for Himself and delivered them from slavery with mighty miracles. You will find out how He taught them to worship Him.

In the second unit you will become familiar with Palestine, the land God promised to His people. With the help of the maps and charts given you will begin to understand its main characteristics. You will follow God's people as they entered this land, possessed it, and finally took their place among the nations of the world. You will learn about the magnificence and splendor that came upon them when they lived in obedience to God.

In the third unit you will see how God's people were exiled from their land because of their disobedience to God. It was a time of heartbreaking failure. But you will also find out how God continued to speak to them. You will see how He brought them back to their land and inspired them to restore and rebuild that which had been destroyed. As you consider this particular time in their history you will learn valuable lessons about the importance of obedience and the possibility of restoration.

This course will help you understand not only the Old Testament but the New Testament as well, for the New is the fulfillment of the Old. Your study of the history of God's people will strengthen your own knowledge of God's ways and God's words and your walk with Him.

Course Description

Tents, Temples, and Palaces gives the student an introduction to the Old Testament. It emphasizes the history of God's people, paying special attention to God's mighty acts and the prophetic words He gave concerning those acts. It deals with the sequence and meaning of the experiences of God's people. It examines their relationship to Him and their successes and failures. The student will discover many truths from the Old Testament that will help him in his understanding of the Bible, his walk with God, and his service for Him.

Course Objectives

When you finish this course you should be able to:

1. Explain why believers today can benefit from studying the Old Testament.
2. Describe the land of Palestine and the major events in the history of the people of God.
3. Appreciate the value of the different kinds of writings found in the Old Testament.
4. Apply to your life and teach to others the truths concerning God which are found in the Old Testament.

Textbooks

You will use this independent-study textbook, Tents, Temples, and Palaces by Rick C. Howard as both the textbook and study guide for the course. The Bible is the only other textbook required. (Quotations in this course are from Today's English Version, 1976 edition.)

Study Time

How much time you actually need to study each lesson depends in part on your knowledge of the subject and the strength of your study skills before you begin the course. The time you spend also depends on the extent to which you follow directions and develop skills necessary for independent study. Plan your study schedule so that you spend enough time to reach the objectives stated by the author of the course and your personal objectives as well.

Lesson Organization and Study Pattern

Each lesson includes: 1) lesson title, 2) opening statement, 3) lesson outline, 4) lesson objectives, 5) learning activities, 6) key words, 7) lesson development including study questions, 8) self-test (at the end of the lesson development), 9) answers to the study questions. Answers to each self-test are at the back of your textbook before the unit student reports.

The lesson outline and objectives will give you an overview of the subject, help you to focus your attention on the most important points as you study, and tell you what you should learn.

Most of the study questions in the lesson development can be answered in spaces provided in this study guide. Longer answers should be written in a notebook. As you write the answers in your notebook, be sure to record the number and title of the lesson. This will help you in your review for the unit student report.

Do not look ahead at the answers until you have given your answer. If you give your own answers, you will remember what you study much better. After you have answered the study questions, check your answers with those given at the end of the lesson. Then correct those you did not answer correctly. The answers are not given in the usual numerical order so that you will not accidentally see the answer to the next question.

These study questions are very important. They will help you to remember the main ideas presented in the lesson and to apply the principles you have learned.

How to Answer Questions

There are different kinds of study questions and self-test questions in this study guide. Below are samples of several types and how to answer them. Specific instructions will be given for other types of questions that may occur.

A MULTIPLE-CHOICE question or item asks you to choose an answer from the ones that are given.

- 1 The Bible has a total of
 a) 100 books.
 b) 66 books.
 c) 27 books.

The correct answer is b) 66 books. In your study guide, make a circle around b) as shown here:

- 1 The Bible has a total of a
 a) 100 books.
 b) 66 books.
 c) 27 books.

(For some multiple-choice items, more than one answer will be correct. In that case, you would circle the letter in front of each correct answer.)

A TRUE-FALSE question or item asks you to choose which of several statements are TRUE.

Example

- 2 Which statements below are TRUE?
 a The Bible has a total of 120 books.
 b The Bible is a message for believers today.
 c All of the Bible authors wrote in the Hebrew language.
 d The Holy Spirit inspired the writers of the Bible.

Statements b and d are true. You would make a circle around these two letters to show your choices, as you see above.

A MATCHING question or item asks you to match things that go together, such as names with descriptions, or Bible books with their authors

Example

3 Write the number for the leader's name in front of each phrase that describes something he did.

- | | | |
|------|----------------------------------|-----------|
| 1. a | Received the Law at Mt. Sinai | 1) Moses |
| 2. b | Led the Israelites across Jordan | 2) Joshua |
| 2. c | Marched around Jericho | |
| 1. d | Lived in Pharaoh's court | |

Phrases a and d refer to Moses, and phrases b and c refer to Joshua. You would write 1 beside a and d, and 2 beside b and c, as you see above.

Ways to Study This Course

If you study this ICI course by yourself, all of your work can be completed by mail. Although ICI has designed this course for you to study on your own, you may also study it in a group or class. If you do this, the instructor may give you added instructions besides those in the course. If so, be sure to follow his instructions.

Possibly you are interested in using the course in a home Bible study group, in a class at church, or in a Bible school. You will find both the subject content and study methods excellent for these purposes

Unit Student Reports

In the back of your study guide are located the unit student reports and answer sheets. These are to be completed according to the instructions included in the course and in the unit student reports. You should complete and send each unit answer sheet to your instructor for his grading and suggestions regarding your work. Send one when you complete each unit.

Certificate

Upon the successful completion of the course and the final grading of the unit answer sheets by your ICI instructor, you will receive your Certificate of Award.
